Semi-Structured Interview Questions

1. Please describe your thought process when building rules.
2. Can you describe the effort it took to build one time rules versus repetitive rules?
3. How did the feedback throughout the system inform your understanding of the programs you were creating?
4. How did you fix rules that did not work as intended?
5. How did your confidence in completing the handover task change throughout the scenario?
6. How capable do you think you were, using AR to program the robot using spatial zones or the virtual interface?